Myriah was given everything she wanted by her father, and after a couple seasons in London, no man seemed to catch her interests. Her father caught her kissing a gentleman and was going to force her to marry. She wasn't having any of that, so she ran, and met a young injured man, on her way to her grandfather's home. She then finds herself entwined in the young man, and his brothers lives and this is where it gets interesting....

Love this anthology so far!!!!For Myriah Fire:When Myriah's father catches her kissing Sir Roland, he demands she announce their engagement. There's only one problem though. She doesn't love him. So, she does the only logical thing and runs away to her grandfather's house and meets an injured man along the way. But, it is the injured man's older brother who catches Myriah's eye and ultimately her heart.I love love love Claudy Conn's historical romances. They are always filled with love, suspense, and a feisty heroine who finds the love of her life despite the odds against them.I will add to this post and review the books individually as I read them.

I love Claudy Conn's books. I already own Myriah Fire But when I saw the book in this set I had to get it again. Claudy will not disappoint when it comes to Myriah Fire. You get everything you expect in a really good romance, and then some. I can't wait to read the other books in this set and will update my review to include those as I get them done. For now, thank you Claudy for another great story.

I am a HUGE Claudy Conn fan. I read Myriah Fire and couldn't put it down once I started it. I used to think that I wasn't the biggest Regency Romance fan, but these authors are making a believer out of me. Buy this, you won't regret it. I promise you that!

I have previously read Myriah Fire by Claudy Conn as a stand alone book. I always thoroughly enjoy Claudy Con's Regency Romance. In a world where your marriages are set up by your family Myriah wants more. When she is ordered by her father to marry a certain man, Myriah runs away in the night. On her journey to her grandfather's home, she and her manservant come across man that has been shot. They return him to his home, tending to his injuries. When Myriah finally gets some sleep, she is awoken by a naked, hard bodied man, Lord Kit Wimborne, who believes she is a woman his brother intends to share. She convinces the Lord to let her stay for a week, to hide from her father and a growing attraction becomes apparent to both of them. With adventure and steamy scenes, a great romance, with a wonderful central character, I know you will enjoy this.

Myriah is typical of the time era young ladies got married and were wives and moms sometimes set up by their families WELL not myriah she will marry for love or not . Seems she is caught in a position yes kissing was enough to make you marry the fellow lol. Her father has been urged by her aunts to get her married so he says she will marry Sir Roland. She runs away with the stable boy her friend of years and many adventures are had she meets a man who set her insides afire and the rest is a great story, This is one of my favorites Claudy Conn is a master of writing great stories of by gone eras will ad to review as I read the rest of the stories

So far I have read only Claudy Conn's book - MYRIAH FIREMyriah Whitney is a spoiled, rich beauty that has had a couple of seasons in London but is holding out for love. She is also not your conventional miss. Her father catches her kissing Sir Roland, who is a rogue and in serious debt and her father decides she should marry him. She refuses and runs away to her grandfather. On the way she finds a young man that has been shot. She manages to get him to his manor. His older borthor, Lord Kit Winborne is under the assumption she is a-bit-of-muslin. She wakes up in his bed and now the fun begins.If you love Claudy Conn books as much as I do, you won't be disappointed

Mariah Fire by Claudy Conn is part of this set. This is my second review for this book. I love all things Claudy and if you enjoy Historical Romance then you have to read this! Mariah is a young woman that just won't let society dictate her life or keep her from finding true love. Lots of adventure and how did I get myself into this. I highly recommend!
