Visions Of Polo

Synopsis

Elizabeth Furth's superb photographs from around the world capture the speed, timing, precision and athleticism of players and ponies, in every possible mood from the elation of winning to the despair of defeat, and the moments of relaxation away from the polo field. Her expertise with the use of light, shade, angle and camera handling give the still-life photographs of tack and equipment a truly artistic quality. Includes fascinating interviews with polo players, patrons and umpires which confirm that polo is not just a sport, but a way of life! A must-have for all polo players! Folio: 320 Size: 9.5 x 11.25 Illustrations: Color photographs Published: 2005

Customer Reviews

Mrs. Furth is a wellknown photographer of horses. She visited worldwide the most important tournaments to publish this very nice fotobook, to let us have a view in front of and behind the polo grounds. Very good eye for the right moment. She presents some professional umpires and let speak important people as Howard Hipwood (GB) und Urs Schwarzenbach (CH) about the best player at the moment on earth Adolfo Cambiaso. Reporting about the newcomer family dynasties in Polo not always Heguy's and Pieres. I think for every polo enthusiast a must have.
